WA Museum Boolba Bardip Tour Wednesday 24 November 2021

Join a guided tour of the WA Museum Boolba Bardip to experience, learn about and enjoy the many stories which make up the ever-evolving rich natural and cultural heritage of Western Australia. These stories, intertwined with an Aboriginal narrative, invite the visitor to explore our State's innovative spirit, geological origins, unique biodiversity, varied cultural mix and global connections. Interactive and reflective opportunities abound in this museum and the chance to meet Otto, the juvenile blue whale housed in the former State Library, is a definite highlight. The tour ends in the yarnning circle located in the display Ngalang Koort Boodja Wirn. Here we can share our stories of the museum experience. Afterwards you can shop in the fantastically stocked Museum Shop or enjoy lunch in Epoch, a cafe specialising in local produce.

Meet at the heritage grapevine near the entrance of the museum at 10.15am for a 10.30am start. Tour ends at 12.30 pm
