Sunday Supper at Samson Cellars

Sunday 26 March 2023 5-8pm

31 Cliff Street Fremantle

What a treat to be able to enjoy this special place which reflects the history of the Swan River Colony courtesy of the Samson family. Sit in the theatrette to view old Fremantle films by Sir Frederick Samson, explore the Samson family museum – archives and memorabilia in the 1850s building. Then Supper in a great atmosphere in the cellar with Plantagenet wines.

The Story

Lionel Samson arrived at Fremantle in 1829 on the Calista and soon set up business as a general merchant including wines and spirits, importer, and auctioneer.

He also engaged in whaling.

He purchased Fremantle town lots 27 and 28 in the first state land sale.

In 1835 he obtained the state's first liquor license.

This is a special fundraising function for new premises for the Society.

Only available to first 60 persons.

There are flights of stairs throughout the building presenting considerable mobility issues.

Members and guests $100 per person.
